400 multiple choice test questions and detailed answers covering all topics on the AP World History exam from 8000 B.C.E. to the present.

In the summer of 1900, bands of peasant youths from the villages of north China streamed into Beijing to besiege the foreign legations, attracting the attention of the entire world. Joseph Esherick reconstructs the early history of the Boxers, challenging the traditional view that they grew from earlier anti-dynastic sects, and stressing instead the impact of social ecology and popular culture.

Become a Master of European History with REA's Flashcards! REA's flashcard book offers students a great way to study for the Advanced Placement European History exam. Unlike most flashcards that come in a box, our flashcards are bound in an easy-to-use, organized book format. With no loose cards to lose or misplace, studying is a breeze! Packed with 500 question and answer flashcards covering all aspects of European History from the Renaissance up through the present day, these flashcards let students write their answer to a question on the front of the card, and then compare it to the answer on the back of the card. The flashcards are chronologically ordered and indexed, allowing students to quickly find a particular era in European History and test their subject knowledge. This Premium Edition with CD includes four test-readiness quizzes, timelines of all chronological periods covered on the actual Advanced Placement exam, and a concise European History review.

Published by OpenStax College, U.S. History covers the breadth of the chronological history of the United States and also provides the necessary depth to ensure the course is manageable for instructors and students alike. U.S. History is designed to meet the scope and sequence requirements of most courses. The authors introduce key forces and major developments that together form the American experience, with particular attention paid to considering issues of race, class and gender. The text provides a balanced approach to U.S. history, considering the people, events and ideas that have shaped the United States from both the top down (politics, economics, diplomacy) and bottom up (eyewitness accounts, lived experience).

The first and most terrifying monster in English literature, from the great early epic Beowulf, tells his own side of the story in this frequently banned book. This classic and much lauded retelling of Beowulf follows the monster Grendel as he learns about humans and fights the war at the center of the Anglo Saxon classic epic. This is the book William Gass called "one of the finest of our contemporary fictions."

Are you knowledgeable about a wide range of subjects? Do you enjoy finding out about famous people and learning interesting facts? Or maybe you are a quizmaster in need of material? Whatever your reason for looking at this book, you are certain to find out something new. Who was Prime Minister of Great Britain from 1841 to 1846? Which country won the first World Cup in 1930 defeating Argentina 4-2? What nationality is the athlete John Walker who was the first man to run a mile under 3 minutes 50 seconds? The answers to all these questions and more can be found in The Best General Knowledge Quiz Book. This book is both educational and fun and it is a good way for all the family to broaden their knowledge. With 100 questions covering all areas of general knowledge including celebrities, films, science, geography, history and sport, there is something for everyone. Whether you want to test yourself against the children or get ready for the local pub quiz, this book is an ideal way to learn more about the world we live in.

In the Words of Desmond Tutu is a collection of some of Nobel Peace Prize laureate Archbishop Desmond Mpilo Tutu's most famous and inspiring quotes and it conveys the intelligence, dignity, steadfastness and much admired wit with which he goes about his work. In doing so it shows how he has come to symbolise and indeed mould a growing movement for global justice. The words collected here promise to provide inspiration in confronting challenges of discrimination and moral uncertainty which we all face, individually or collectively.
