'Chamber Music' is a collection of poems by James Joyce first published 1907. The collection originally comprised thirty-four love poems, but two further poems were added before publication. Although the poems did not sell well (fewer than half of the original print run of 500 had been sold in the first year), they received some critical acclaim. Ezra Pound admired the "delicate temperament ...

Chamber Music is a collection of poems by James Joyce, published by Elkin Mathews in May 1907. The collection originally comprised thirty-four love poems, but two further poems were added before publication ("All day I hear the noise of waters" and "I hear an army charging upon the land").

Chamber Music (poetry collection) - Wikipedia

I just finished this lovely book. The wonder of this book is that the narrator, a 90 year old woman, tells her story with great clarity and restraint, yet the effect of reading it was visceral and powerful. Chamber Music is beautifully written. Highly recommended.
