Albert Mehrabian. Image supplied rights-cleared by the Chartered Management Institute, 2015. Professor Mehrabian (1939-) believes that there are three core elements in the effective face-to-face communication of emotions or attitudes: nonverbal behaviour (facial expressions, for example), tone of voice, and the literal meaning of the spoken word. These three essential elements, Mehrabian argues, account for how we convey our liking, or disliking, of another person.
